MACRO THEMES

July NFP: -23K — September Hike Flipped to Minority

-23K vs +80K consensus. May +63K, June +20K (-103K combined). Wages 3.2% (below 3.5%). Sept hike now 44%; hold is 56% majority.

Stocks Best Week Since April: S&P; +3.58%, Nasdaq +5.19%

Atlassian +34%, Cloudflare +10%, Airbnb +12% on earnings. Gold to $4,244 (7-wk high). 10-yr to 4.65%. S&P; at ATH 7,757.

Iran: Deal Still Not Done — Oil Back Up to $84 Today

FM ruled out direct US talks Sunday; restrictive Hormuz draft. Brent $84 today from $82 last week. Geopolitical premium on pause.

July CPI Wednesday 8:30am — The Week's Decisive Print

Built on $80-95 Brent in July. Below 3.9% = September hold stays. 4.0%+ = hike back to 60%+; all NFP relief erased.

CRYPTO THEMES

Bitcoin $64,858 — Off August Highs, Waiting on CPI

Hit $65,300 Friday on NFP. Sept hike at 44% vs 57% Thursday. Soft CPI opens $65,600 (50-mo EMA). Hot CPI = back to $62-63K.

ETF Flows: Check Weekly Data Today — Week 4 Building

$626M 3-day inflow last week; IBIT 80% = institutional. If Aug 3-7 week positive, that's 4 consecutive positive weeks.

CLARITY Act: Senate Recess — September at Earliest

No cloture filed; Senate recessed Aug 7. Next: Sept 8 return vs appropriations. Year-end appropriations rider most likely.

Jackson Hole Aug 27-29 — 17 Days

Theme: 'Financial Innovation + Payments + Policy.' NFP cooling widens Warsh's range. Digital assets language = crypto catalyst.

August 10, 2026

JULY NFP DETAIL — -23,000 JOBS VS +80,000 EXPECTED

METRIC	ACTUAL	EST	PRIOR	NOTE
Nonfarm Payrolls	-23,000	+80K	+20K	Miss below all Bloomberg forecasts
Unemployment Rate	4.1%	4.2%	4.2%	Fell due to participation drop
Avg Hourly Earnings	3.2% YoY	3.5%	3.5%	Wages cooling: disinflationary
Combined Revisions	-103K	—	—	May -66K + June -37K: 3-mo avg ~20K
Govt Education	-50K	—	—	Seasonal; likely reverses Aug

Note: -50K in local government education is a seasonal timing anomaly; private sector payrolls actually increased modestly. The structural weakness is the revisions (-103K combined) and the falling participation rate (61.4%), not the headline alone.

RISKS & OUTLOOK

BEARS WATCH

CPI hot Wednesday (4.0%+) — Sept hike back to 60%+; NFP relief erased; BTC re-tests $62,500; stock rally stalls. Iran deal collapses — oil above $88; August CPI also re-accelerates; FOMC cornered. August seasonal BTC weakness: -6.5% to -14% historically; macro tailwind may not overcome seasonal pattern even if CPI soft.

BULLS WATCH

CPI soft Wednesday (3.7-3.9%) — Sept hold to 65%+; BTC breaks $65,600 EMA for first time this year; dollar falls; ETF inflows accelerate. Iran-Oman Hormuz deal formal — oil to $75-78; August CPI improves. ETF week 4 confirmed today — 4 consecutive positive weeks = structural institutional re-entry signal; $1B+ weekly target in sight.

JULY CPI WEDNESDAY — BITCOIN SCENARIO TABLE

CPI PRINT	SEPT FOMC	BTC MOVE	SEQUENCE
Below 3.7%	Hold ~70%+	+$65,600 → $67K	NFP + CPI both soft = clear hold; JH tone balanced
3.7-3.9% (base)	Hold ~60-65%	+$65,600 test	Oil-driven but manageable; hold stays majority
4.0-4.2%	50/50 split	Flat / -$63K	Hike back in play; October becomes the live meeting
4.2%+	Hike ~60%+	-$62,500 test	NFP relief fully reversed; dollar bid; ETF outflows

BITCOIN $65,600 LEVEL + JACKSON HOLE COUNTDOWN

$65,600 — The Line That Matters: Every rally this year has failed at or near the 50-month EMA at $65,600. Bitcoin tagged $65,300 on Friday and pulled back. 155,000 BTC accumulated $62-65K. Soft CPI = those holders profitable = reflexive bid above the EMA. Hot CPI = underwater = selling pressure. A sustained close above $65,600 would be the most significant technical development Bitcoin has seen this entire cycle.

Jackson Hole Aug 27-29 (17 days): With NFP soft and September hike at 44%, Warsh has room to be balanced at the podium rather than explicitly hawkish. The theme 'Financial Innovation: Implications for Payments and Policy' is a direct invitation for him to address digital assets, stablecoins, and CBDC frameworks. Any Warsh language on Bitcoin's role in the payment ecosystem would be historically significant — the first time a Fed Chair has addressed it from the Jackson Hole stage.
